

REVISED 26 May 2020

STAFFORDSHIRE GAZETEER (ANCIENT) 1086-1538

In this gazeteer the county is considered to be divided into "PARISHES" and OUTLIERS (extra-parochial areas) as it was in 1538.

In 1538 there were 182 "parishes" which were Lichfield Cathedral & Close (1), Colleges (6), Rectories (44) (tithes not impropriate), Vicarages (39) (tithes were or had been impropriated by religious institutions) or Parochial Chapelries (92) (served by a parochial curate) (--).

- ♦ CATHEDRAL (1)
- ♦ COLLEGE (6)
- ♦ RECTORY (44)
- ♦ VICARAGE (39)
- ♦ PAROCHIAL CURACY (92)

IPC56

DPC36

In 1538 the rectories and Vicarages would have met later criteria defining an independent parish whereas many of the curacies would have been considered dependencies. For convenience of classification these are here divided into two sub-groups but the boundaries are to some extent subjective.

INDEPENDENT PAROCHIAL CHAPELRIES [I P C] (56) were often quite independent of their parent body such as a College (19), a LICHFIELD CATHEDRAL OFFICE (20) or a MONASTERY (17) whilst DEPENDENT PAROCHIAL CHAPELRIES [D P C] (36) were more dependent on a parent PARISH. Of these curacies most had an independent parent parish but a few had a parent parish itself dependent on an institution.

There were also a number of CHAPELS-OF-EASE (C-O-E) (19) (served by Chaplains) in the county which were totally dependent on their parent parish.

Curacies, Chapels etc (which lay outside the county) are noted but not counted.

OUTLIERS (extra-parochial areas) are marked ■ and "attached" to a neighbouring parish. Thus: ■ Chartley by Stowe.

Some parishes, districts or chapelries lay (or partly lay) outside the county and are here marked +++

Many parishes contained districts (sometimes called hamlets, manors, townships, lordships etc.).

Other buildings or small estates appear in "..".

Also included are a list of Religious Houses (as given in VCH III 139).

Staffordshire was divided into five Hundreds: Cuttlestone, Offlow, Pirehill, Seisdon and Totmonslow.

Information concerning dedications and earliest date of surviving parish registers [PRGR] (including Bishops Transcripts etc) has been mostly taken from the NATIONAL INDEX OF PARISH REGISTERS VOLUME 6 PART I: STAFFORDSHIRE compiled by Peter D. Bloore (1992) for which SEE very detailed information.
